

GRI seeks an Intern Training & Certification Programs

Internship: 40 hrs p/w – 6 months (€ 900-p/m gross)

Start date: ASAP

Location: Amsterdam, the Netherlands

Internship Summary

GRI is looking to recruit an intern interested in sustainability and corporate responsibility issues for the GRI Training & Certification Programs. The main tasks will be to provide administrative support for the implementation of the GRI Training and Certification Programs. The position is available for a minimum period of 6 months on a full-time basis with a possibility of extension of 3 months.

Tasks include

- Assist in the administration of the GRI Training Partner Program
- Assist in completing training material packages
- Assist in administration of Certified Training Partner program and GRI Professional Certification Program
- Assist in market research on future GRI Learning Units
- Updating website using CMS

Key competencies

- Advanced level fluency in written and spoken English.
- Good working knowledge of Microsoft Office software, especially PowerPoint.
- Interest in how training programs are developed and implemented is a plus.
- Ability to work in an international and multi-cultural setting
- Good team player with a “can do” attitude.
- Results-focused ability to handle multiple tasks and work on precise timelines.

About GRI

GRI is an international independent organization that has pioneered corporate sustainability reporting since 1997. GRI helps businesses, governments and other organizations understand and communicate the impact of business on critical sustainability issues such as climate change, human rights, corruption and many others. With thousands of reporters in over 90 countries, GRI provides the world's most trusted and widely used standards on sustainability reporting, enabling organizations and their stakeholders to make better decisions based on information that matters. Currently, over 40 countries and regions reference GRI in their policies. GRI is built upon a unique multi-stakeholder principle, which ensures the participation and expertise of diverse stakeholders in the development of its standards. GRI's mission is to empower decision-makers everywhere, through its standards and multi-stakeholder network, to take action towards a more sustainable economy and world.

Contact details

Interested people, eligible to work in the Netherlands, are asked to submit a detailed CV and a short cover letter that describes how this placement may advance their future intentions and goals in the sustainability field and what their qualifications are for the position. Applications should be submitted in English by latest 17 May 2021 at 12:00 noon CET to the HR Department on recruitment@globalreporting.org.

Employment prospects: The GRI internship program is not linked to full time employment opportunities at GRI and the program should be valued by its own merits. Interns should not expect to be offered an employment contract after ending their internship; nevertheless, they are very welcome to apply for job

