

JOIN THE GRI COMMUNITY

Global catalyst for sustainable change

The GRI Community is a catalyst for transparency; it's a learning-exchange space where experience and expertise come together helping participants make competitive choices; it's the launchpad for local and global leaders to share their success stories; the powerhouse where collective impact in sustainable development starts to become real and grow.

Is your organization a future sustainability leader committed to creating tangible improvements and impacts that benefit your own business and its ecosystem?

Transparency can break barriers and reveal new connections and opportunities. Each year hundreds of organizations globally commit to leading with transparency through the GRI Community.
