1. Holistic approach: covers both prevention of harm and promotion of workers’ health.

2. Emphasis on management of health and safety, using leading indicators.

3. Response to modern ways of working, such as the gig economy or the mobile workforce.

4. Focus on workers’ health and recovery from injuries.

5. Developed together with leading organizations in occupational health and safety and aligned with the SDGs and key instruments of ILO and ISO.

www.globalreporting.org/standards